Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Buck was a dog who lived in a big house in the sunny California. His life was peaceful and full of cheer. Buck was guarding the house and his people, and he enjoyed it. He was strong and big with long hair. One day, Buck was sold to an unknown man by a money thirsty servant. The new owner took him as far away from his home as possible. Once again Buck was sold, this time, to a government man named Francois. His job was to carry mail to distant places like Alaska. Although Buck got the opportunity to see snow for the first time in his life he also encountered hardships. Most of the time, he was pulling the sleigh with other dogs and delivering mail. For his bravery, Buck became the leader of the dogs. Then he learned the first lesson that was important for him to survive - it was never to fall because if he did that, he would get torn apart by the other dogs. After some time he got some new owners. This new owners; Charles, Hal, and Mercedes owned sleigh as well but they had no experience with that job. They also refused to take any advice from other people and did not take care of their dogs. They tortured them, and that was the reason why they had fewer dogs each day. Hal has been particularly brutal to their dogs. It so happened that one day, the sleigh stopped in front of John's cabin. Saying that Buck was tired is an understatement - he was exhausted. He refused to get up after being punched by his owners. Because John could not watch Buck get beaten by Hal, he confronted Hal who drew out...
